

A little trick to help your child learn to read syllables

INSTRUCTIONS

- cut the letters out one by one (consonants are orange, vowels are blue);
- spread them out on a table;
- ask your child to choose one letter in each colour to form a syllable;
- ask them what sounds the letters make when put together;
- ask them to form a real or made-up word by adding more letters.

A little trick to help your child learn to read syllables

