

20 Improv Themes to Improve Language Skills

1. Free: Players can do whatever they want.
2. Props: The opposing team chooses an accessory or object that the playing team has to use as a prop. The accessory or object cannot be used for its intended purpose in the scene. For example, a spoon could be used as a pen, shovel, or hockey stick, but not a utensil!
3. Miming only: Everyone has to mime—no words allowed!
4. Rhyming only: Everyone's lines have to rhyme.
5. Sound effects: Players can only make sound effects while they act out the scene—no words or invented languages allowed!
6. Sing it: Everyone has to sing all their lines.
7. A-minus: No one can use the letter A—they have to replace it with the letter O.
8. Marble mouth: Everyone has to talk like their mouth is full of marbles.
9. Gibberish: Everyone has to speak in a made-up language.
10. Statues: Players have to stay in silly poses for the duration of the scene.
