Write Your Own Halloween Story

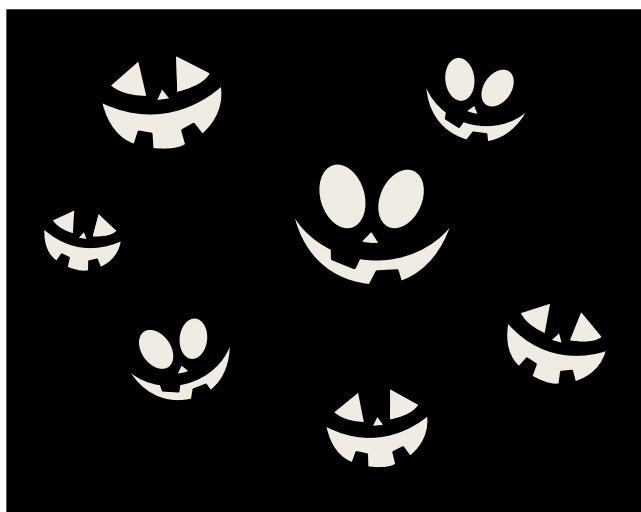

Student Booklet

Choose one of the following five images, then cut it out.

You will use the chosen image to represent one of the main stages of your story:

- Exposition
- Conflict
- Rising action
- Climax
- Falling action
- Resolution

Work space

Here's a space to work on your draft.

If you have a few ideas, write them all down to figure out which one you want to use.
If you prefer, you can also draw your ideas in this space.

Story Outline

Once you've decided where the chosen image will fit into your story, glue it in the appropriate place.

		Glue your image in this column in your chosen location. Take notes to develop your outline, step by step. Write down key words. This is not the place to write complete sentences.
Beginning	Who? (the characters) Where? (the place) When? (the time)
Middle	Conflict What's the character's problem? Rising action (at least 2 events) What do the characters do to solve the problem? What are the characters' reactions? Climax What is the turning point?
Ending	Falling action How does the character solve their problem? Resolution How does the story end?

Exposition

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.
