

Why Should You Go to School?

Because at school you can:

Learn about the world you live in

Build long-lasting friendships

Have all kinds of interesting experiences

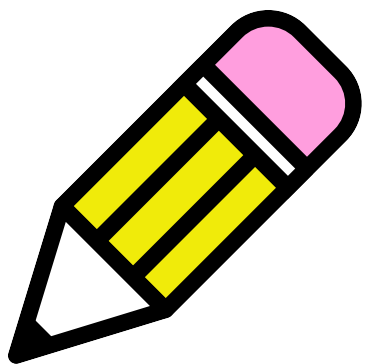

Push yourself and take on new challenges

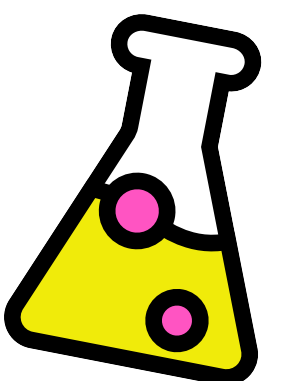

Try new things

Develop your talents and work toward your dreams

Master important skills like reading, writing, and counting

Build things, do crafts, and do experiments

Have fun while you learn

